Memo

A-Sht. 2 of 1892-93

Appellants: Devangada
Ranga & other ryots
of Nyadarahalli Hassan
Taluk.

On the 24th December 1891 the appellants presented a petition to this office that the land set apart as 'gomal' for Nyadarahalli at the Survey settlement was not sufficient and that Survey Nos 80 & 86, Kharab, in the said village might also be granted (sale) to them for pasturage free.

In April 1892 an Endorsement was issued to the petitioners from this office that they should first represent the matter to the Deputy Commr and obtain his Endorsement.

In the meantime the appellants had represented the matter to the Dy Commr who thereupon issued to them an Endorsement that their request could not be complied with.

31-12-91

1-7-92

The appellants thereupon appealed to this office against the Deputy Commr's order above mentioned.

The appellants made the following allegations in their appeal petition:-

(1) That prior to the Survey settlement about 400 acres of land had been set apart as gomal for the village of Byadarahalli.

(2) That two "dakhale" koppals were attached to this village, which consisted of about 400 head of cattle.

(3) That there was no gomal at all set apart for the said "Koppals".

(4) That much of the land that had been formerly used as gomal, was subsequent to the Survey settlement brought under cultivation.

(5) That the Kharab lands Survey Nos 80 & 86 should be granted for pasturage, free of sale, otherwise it would be very inconvenient for the ryots in the said village.

The Deputy Commr in his report to this office 12-10-92 states that there are 750 head of cattle in the village, that the appellants' allegation that the assessed lands hitherto unoccupied have been taken up for cultivation is not ~~fully~~ true since there is yet ~~7~~ 47 acres of assessed waste, that the gomal now set apart for the village is 127 acres in extent which is fairly extensive for all reasonable purposes, that under these circumstances he cannot recommend the two unassessed and uncultivable waste lands survey nos 80 & 86 to be granted to the appellants for gomal in addition to what they have already got and that besides, survey no 86 is the village tope which cannot of course be granted.

~~Bdsk~~ Note:

(vide Shanbhag's report)

The jamabandi of the village is Rs 888.7.3. There are 49 houses in the "asli" Byadarhalli village and 48 in the "dakhale" Koppals. There are 872 heads of cattle in Byadarhalli including its two "dakhale" Koppals.

I respectfully beg to submit that I have made a mistake in saying that this appeal is beyond time by 15 months.

The date of the order appealed against is 31st Dec 91. as noted down by me on the abstract of the Petition. From this date up to the date of the last petition, viz 1st July 92 the period is only 6 months, whereas I miscalculated it

1 year & 6 months,
and allowing 3
months as prescribed
by law, the appeal
was stated to be beyond time by 15 months.

Calculating from the Date of the 1st Petition on 24th Jan 4 1892, the appeal is within the time allowed by law.

The endorsement

in the mean while found out.

ABSTRACT.

The Petitioners submitted a petition on 24-12-91, praying that the waste land nos. 86 might be given to them for gomal land as a large portion of their former gomal had been assessed and given out for cultivation. They were favoured with an endorsement that they should represent to the Dy Commissioner at the first instance.

They now appeal against his order dated 31.12.91 in no 188 that the said cannot be granted and they pray for a favourable order.

To

The Chief Secretary to the

Sir,

With reference to your official memo No. 216 of the 10th August 1892 forwarding* petitions from Devangada Ranga and other inhabitants of the Byaderahalli village, Hassan Taluk, praying that Survey No. 86 may be granted to them for Genal land, I have the honor to state that it will be seen from the statement noted in the margin that Survey No.

No. 84 measuring 127 acres and 21 Guntas is the number assigned to the village for grazing purposes. There are 750 heads of cattle in the village and the Gomal land above referred to falls short of the approximate required area by 98 acres. Hence the prayer of the inhabitants for want of more Gomal land. They base their request on the ground that adjoined lands hitherto unoccupied have been taken up for cultivation and that therefore they feel the Manood Gomal insufficient. This is not altogether true. For there is yet 47 acres of adjoined waste. In my opinion it will be an inconvenient precedent to reserve such land permanently for village pasturage pasturage and to have land set apart in the settlement as avail-able for cultivation – for its legitimate purpose of extending cultivation when demand for land goes on increasing. The gomal now is 127 acres in – extent fairly extensive for all reasonable purposes. This is what they had for years past and they must rest satisfied with it. –

2 — I therefore cannot recom-mend that the two unassessed and uncultivable waste lands viz 80 and 86 available in the village may be granted to them for gomal
in addition to the ancient gomal Survey number 86 is the
